You Can Save Money, Coal and Labor

With Our Smokeless Arch Furnace

With this attachment to your furnace you will be able to burn Any soft coal without smoke, and with efficiency equal to that of Pocahontas coal and the results will be a long firing period with more uniform heat and even pressure throughout the System, owing to the magazine feature of our arch furnace, which allows a heavy firing with a large quantity of coal and slow and complete combustion, which maintains a low, steady pressure in the pipes and radiators.

A further result is a saving of from 15% to 35% in fuel.

The installation of this system enables you to clean the flues as usual from the front, so that you will not have to go to the extra expense of putting in side clean-out doors, which method of cleaning the flues is impractical and difficult.

This addition to your heating plant will save nearly its cost in one season's firing to say nothing of the added comfort due to entire absence of smoke and the reduction in cost of fuel and labor required by the fireman, owing to the long firing period.

The installation of this system does not cause any inconvenience to the occupants of your building, as the time required for such installation is but a few hours.

PATTILLO'S GLASSES
Improve Your Looks

You've probably noticed that glasses are becoming to some people and not so to others; you may think they are not becoming to you.
This is largely a matter of fitting; there's as wide a variety in styles and fitting of glasses as in other things you wear, and we are experts in selecting and fitting the glasses most suitable to your type of face.
Of course, the important thing about glasses is the proper fitting of the lenses, but there's no reason for not having the lenses set in a becoming way.

Our Substantial Banks' Statements

We take pleasure this week in presenting the official statements of the fourteen banks in this vicinity that are the leading financial institutions of this part of the city. Two are national banks, and the others under state supervision and are therefore reliable ,and financially responsible to the highest degree. All of these institutions have been most liberal in their contributions to every patriotic drive the government has put forth, and all are now in the midst of the "Soldiers' activity" drive. No local district in the city may boast of so many substantial banking institutions and the Englewood Times feels proud and complimented that it is the official organ of them. With such banks as these at our doors, there can be no excuse for anyone doing their banking elsewhere.

The War Is Over, the Victory Won

It would take a large volume to tell of Englewood and our territory during the terrible struggle just closing. A modest estimate is that we furnished over 10,000 soldiers and sailors, the best of our young men, and amid this glorious array of blue stars, we may honor many that glorious death has changed to gold. Our soldier and sailor boys knew no class, no creed, no nationality other than that they were all Americans, and they went forth willingly to serve their country in the several fields of warfare, while thousands more served as well in other fields of usefulness, and necessity, in carrying on the war. The faithful mechanic who stuck to his bench; the rejected volunteer who aided in the many fields of commerce, the men and women who contributed their time and money in the necessary "drives," all may share in the glory of the great victory. Englewood made a good record away back in the stormy days of the war of the Rebellion: we were well represented in the Spanish-American war ,and in the last great war, we have done ourselves proud. While the war is practically over, there is yet much to be done and it will be several years before all of our soldiers and sailors will return home to us. They need our help now in affording them the many comforts and conveniences of the War Relief workers in the different organizations ,and we must see that they have it. It is our duty as well as privilege to contribute and everyone should do their share, and this week should close with Englewood and Chicago well over the top in their quota. Help now.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLEWOOD
64th St. and Yale Ave.
Pastor, Rev. Willard H. Robinson,

At Englewood Presbyterian church, at the morning service at 10:30, the pastor will speak on "Scene Shifting in the World Drama." It is remarkable that many great thinkers and writers have regarded human life as a play upon a stage. Underneath this constantly recurring notion of life as a theatrical play lie many instructive assumptions: Life is transitory. Life, although real compared to theatrical acting, is unreal compared to the eternal verities that never change. Happy is the man whose life "on the boards" is like his daily life and like the life he must live in the life beyond life.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Ladies Bargain Week Day Matinees All Seats 15c

Burlesque in all that the name implies will be the offering at the Englewood Theatre beginning Sunday, Nov. 17th and twice daily when the latest theatrical innovation, "The High Flyers," will hold the fort and also the audience. There are twenty musical numbers, all of the latest song hits, and the spectacular opening scene, "The Charity Bazaar," is one in which the scenic effects are unusually beautiful and artistic. The aviation field is a work of art, the electrical and scenic splendor of this scene being one of the most intensively interesting, with humorous situations and music combined ,that has ever been offered to the show-going public.

While this theatrical rarity at first seems suggestive, it is inoffensive and immaculate in every line, with the following cast of high class artists, Bert Bertland, Charles Cole, Barbara Douglas, Gertrude Ralston, Jack Sheehan, Joseph Cunningham, Grace Howard, Stella Blair and thirty beautifully costumed thirty-sixes.

Thursday and Friday, Nov. 14 and 15—Douglas Fairbanks in "He Comes Up Smiling." Did you ever lose your little canary out of its little cage? Douglas Fairbanks did, and the worst of it was the bird belonged to the boss, who would throw eight fits if its valet came back empty-handed. And that's only the beginning of the story. The bird's the wickedest little varmint you ever saw, and it licks creation the way it acts—just as though it had received full instructions. A sparkling picture. See it. Also Montgomery Flagg's new comedy, "Manhattan Hicks," a clean and humorous comedy in two parts. Also Thursday only. Screen Magazine and Universal Weekly. Also Friday only, Mutt and Jeff comedy.

Saturday, November 16th. Matinee and night. Direct from the Loop. Charming and versatile Norma Talmadge and Thomas Meighan in her greatest triumph, "The Forbidden City." A thrilling story of Old China, elaborately produced and showing Miss Talmadge at her best. "East is East and West is West, and never shall the twain meet." Do you remember those famous words. Their truth is demonstrated by this latest triumph of Norma Talmadge's. Patrons we do not want you to miss this splendid production. Also latest Allied War Review and a scream two-part Sunshine Comedy. Also matinee only, "Hands Up."

Sunday, November 17th. Extra! One day only! Continuous, 2 to 11 P. M. The United States Government presents the second Official War Production, "America's Answer. President Wilson says: "It was one of the most remarkable and one of the most satisfactory portrayals that we had seen of the great task which America has performed with such enthusiasm and in a fashion which cannot leave the result in doubt."

Monday, November 18th. Dorothy Dish in "Battling Jane." You see, they had a Thrift Stamp Drive, and to boost the drive they had a baby show, and Battling Jane's adopted kid won the $500 prize and then the real father turns up and tried to prevent the kid soaking the whole sum in Thrift Stamps. Lord, it's funny!

Tuesday, November 19th. Lila Lee in "The Cruise of the Make-Believers." In this romantic picture Lila Lee shows all poor little girls how to sail away to happiness.

Wednesday, November 20th. Bessie Barriscale in "The Heart of Rachael." "The Heart of Rachael" contains many tense and dramatic scenes, such as the driving of the motor car from the country into town, to save the boy's life, through a blinding storm. The lighting effects here are particularly beautiful.

Thursday Friday and Saturday, November 21, 22, 23. Exclusive advance showing in Englewood of Charlie Chaplin in his second million dollar comedy "Shoulder Arms."

Also Thursday and Friday, November 21st and 22nd, Harry Morey in "The King of Diamonds."

Also Saturday, November 23rd, Chas. Ray in "The Law of the North."

LINDEN THEATRE

Always The Best Better Than The Rest — Radium Gold Fibre Screen — 63rd Street at Halsted

Friday, November 15th, Mae Marsh in "Hidden Fires." The part of Peggy Murray in "Hidden Fires" gives Mae Marsh a wonderful opportunity to display her acclaimed aptitude for changing moods—provoking her audiences to tears in one incident and a moment later bringing smiles to their faces.

Saturday and Sunday, November 16th and 17th. Norma Talmadge in "The Forbidden City." Her role is that of a Chinese girl in the first part of the picture and as a Chinese-American girl in the latter part. It is a dual role and one which is very difficult to portray. One of the most picturesque and spectacular scenes in the picture is the Hall of Flashing Spears, a secret chamber in the Chinese Emperor's Palace where young girls who refuse the Emperor's love are killed.

Monday and Tuesday, November 18th and 19th. Private Harold Peat in "Private Peat." Who started the war? There is no room for argument. The Germans started the war. Who will finish the war? The truth of these statements is amply proved by Private Peat in this great picture.

Thursday, November 21st. Tom Moore in "Thirty a Week." Dan Murray, the chauffeur, the role Tom Moore plays, is himself in the flesh—a good-natured rollicking Irishman with a smile for all and a helping hand for anyone who needs it.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms," the title of his newest picture.

Friday, November 22nd. Wallace Reid in "The Man from Funeral Range." It looks mighty bad for Wallace Reid in this picture-fugitive of the law, and innocent at that—but it's no use for an innocent man to argue with the electric chair.

Saturday and Sunday, November 23rd and 24th. Fred Stone in "The Goat." He takes some of the biggest risks you ever saw like oiled lighting—does a stunt on the roof of a building that makes you heart count 1-2-3 too fast for comfort; beats up a lot of actors who had dared to don the German uniform; picks up a little girl from under the flying hoofs of a horse—and thru it all does not bat an eyelash. For honest to goodness thrills see "The Goat."

NATIONAL THEATRE

W. D. Griffith's Masterpiece "Hearts of the World" at the National Theatre—Daily Matinees

"Hearts of the World," the D. W. Griffith production that required eighteen months in the making and which is declared to be the masterpiece of this genius of the motion picture, surpassing both "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance," will return to Chicago at the National Theatre for 2 weeks starting next Sunday. Daily matinees will be given.

That "Hearts of the World" has established a new high record for even a Griffith production is known to those who witnessed the spectacle on its initial presentation in this city. It has a record of more than 500 performances in New York and Chicago and is still the reigning attraction in other principal cities throughout this country. That it is a most unusual achievement is evidenced from the announcement that David Lloyd George and other high officials of the British and French nations not only gave Mr. Griffith their most hearty co-operation in the taking of the principal scenes, but personally appear in the play.

Contrary to the general opinion, this latest of the Griffith works is not altogether a war play. It is described by Mr. Griffith himself as "The sweetest love story ever told." It was written by Gaston de Tolignac and translated from the French by Captain Victor Marier. The story is in two parts, the first revealing the life of an ordinary French family before the war and the second the experiences of these people when the great conflict brings its grim realities to their doors.

The majority of the scenes in "Hearts of the World" are described as great moving paintings that might have been conceived by the world's greatest artists, their beauty and grandeur far excelling anything ever before attempted even by the master hand of the indomitable Griffith.

The presentation will be on the same elaborate scale as on the initial engagement in this city. The same big symphony orchestra and the complete equipment which enhanced the value of the entertainment will be important factors in the presentation on the return engagement.

First Mortgages upon Improved and Producing Farms

6% President Wilson recently said: "Upon the farmers of this country in a large measure rests the fate of the war and the fate of the nations."

In these days when it is so necessary that the farmers be financed, an investment in a farm mortgage loan is essentially a patriotic investment. For years we have been making farm mortgages and in over three million dollar loans for several hundred customers there has not been a single instance of loss or annoyance. We attend to all interest and principal collections. Send for our illustrated Booklet describing these safe and desirable investments.

Don't waste your time experimenting. We have done this for you. Have tested out a number of Indiana and Illinois coals and found them all to be pretty good. We finally selected a coal mined in Saline County, Southern Illinois, known as "Harrisburg for Heat." The coal comes in egg sizes, free burning, no clinkers and gives a tremendous heat. Can be burned in any kind of furnace, hot water or steam plants, also in stoves, and is unexcelled for hard coal furnaces. Put your supply of coal in now while the getting is good. If you don't heed the warning now you may find yourself out of coal later on. Order now. We deliver anywhere. Phone Stewart 70. J. B. Meiner & Son, 71st & Rock Island R. R.—Advertisement.

RICHARD B. SCOTT,
Secretary.

Mary had a little cold
That started in her head,
And everywhere that Mary went
That cold was sure to spread,
It followed her to school one day
(There wasn't any rule),
It made the children cough and sneeze
To have that cough at school.
The teacher tried to drive it out;
She tried hard but—kerchool!—
It didn't do a bit of good,
For teacher caught it too.

This "Peace" was worth two celebrations.

"Talking about high bred dogs," says Casey, "shure Oi hov a skye terrier, kin yez git ony higher nor thot?"

"No, marriage is not a lotthery," says Casey. "Ye hov sum chance in a lotthery—marriage is a brace game."

The secret is out why Billy "Mac" pays $8.50 for one egg. His chickens are all roosters but one, and that one crows.

Casey philosophizes: "Ye may stretch the truth into a loie, but the divil a bit can yez shrink a loie into the truth."

"Yis most iv us want to go to Hiven," says Casey. "Boot Oi niver sane mony thot were in ony grate hurry aboot it."

Now is the time the good little wifey is selecting red and yellow neckties, and flor de cabbage cigars for "dear hubby" and expecting him to exchange them for a seal skin coat as a Christmas present.

"Doc" Robertson advises that the "salute" replace hand shaking. So far, "Doc," I am with you, but when you further advise that the cold military salute also take the place of kissing I rebel. I am not afraid of any old microbe that comes from a fresh juicy kiss from a pretty girl, so don't be scared girls. Office hours 8 to 5, and overtime by appointment. Come early to avoid the rush.

"Jinerally the mon who laves his own counthry beknae he hates ut, kums here to boss this wurk," says Casey.

When I asked Casey if his daughter liked her new winter coat, he answered, "Oh, yis; Oi giss so, at laste she is awl wrapped oop in it."

"Yis, me bye," said Casey to his son. "Rid is a soign iv danger whether ye say it on a mon's nose, a gurl's chakes, or a railroad flag."

Casey says, "Begarry thot man Foch moost be an Oirishmon, shure he wor bound to hov pace, aven if he made the Germans foight fer ut."

There should be a rush in the business of supplying tinware to many households this week. The boys made away with about everything that could be rattled or jingled during the Peace celebration.

Casey had ordered a man to remove a sign in front of his store, and the man said, "But I have Captain Madden's oral permission to keep it there." "Oi don't belave ye," said Casey. "Lit me say ut if ye's hov ut."

Just as another proof that "I" know everything, I want to remind our readers of the prophesy published last spring, that the war would end in 1918. The fact is Foch told me so privately. Ahem!

Casey had just moved into one of the most modern of small flats, and when I asked if his wife found fault with its size, he answered, "Yerrah, no; sure thare is no room fer complaint."

A beggar accosted Casey on the street yesterday, saying, "Say, mister, I've lost a leg," and the busy officer answered, "Will, Oi'm sorry, me good mon, boot Oi heven't toime now to sthop an' hilp ye look fer ut."

There was once a husband who gave real consideration to his wife's birthday, and on that day he brought home an interesting little parcel carefully wrapped in white string which he handed to his wife. "Oh, you darling!" said she. "Then you didn't forget my birthday, after all, did you?" She opened the little parcel with interest, then she gave a kind of groan. "Pipe cleaners!" she said. "Yes, love," said the husband. "I knew they'd please you. You never did like me to use your hairpins, did you?"

Englewood Woman's Club

Armenian Day, November 18th, Folk Songs and Folk Dancing, Followed by Business Meeting

The literature department met on Monday morning, November 11th and heard Ethel M. Colson, of the Herald and Examiner read poems of the newer type, and poems of those who have lost their lives in this World War. Many of these poems showed much beauty of character and were enjoyed by the ladies. Reports were read by several chairman of committees.

In the afternoon of one of the most memorial days in the world's history a goodly number of ladies gathered together in the assembly hall.

The meeting opened with a prayer of Thanksgiving by Rev. Arthur Francis, followed by an audible repetition of the Lord Prayer.

The Battle Hymn of the Republic was enthusiastically sung by Rev. Francis with the audience joining in the chorus, followed by America and the newly added verse:

God save our splendid men,
Bring them safe home again;
God save our men.
Make them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous,
They are so dear to us;
God save our men.

Mrs. Roy Haynes, secretary was called on by the president, Mrs. Charles Clark, for her report and announcements, and Miss Dorothy Frees gave the poem of the afternoon, entitled "Your Lad and My Lad."

The Allied War Drive which began on this day was spoken of by Rev. Francis, who made an earnest plea to give in this drive with no compunction, as each dollar, whether in the hands of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, American Library Ass'n, Salvation Army or other organizations, which are all working unselfishly and with broad vision, will go to the boys and your boy. "It's a big thing and a big cause," he said.

The speaker of the afternoon was J. Paul Good, Ph. D., of the University of Chicago, whose subject was "The Prussian Dream of World Conquest."

Dr. Good had been introduced to this club before, therefore he was welcomed heartily on Monday, his subject was most fitting on this day of Peace. He dealt largely with maps for his illustrations which clearly showed each detail which he wished to convey, and also gave us an insight into the producing power of that nation, compared to other countries in the world and how for years back the thought of agriculture seemed uppermost in the minds of the different leaders of that land.

In the minds of these leaders for years past carried the following thoughts:

"As the Eagle soars, so do the Germans."

"We are without equals and without superiors."

"We are the salt of the earth."

The lecture was very intellectual and the club was very fortunate to have had the services of one who was so well informed on this subject.

Next Monday the education department are to have their morning program. Viola R. Fry will speak on "Helping the Boys at Great Lakes." Cora Caverno, Principal of the Copernicus School, will present the Junior High School Movement and a discussion will be led by Myra Billings, Principal of the Ward School.

Armenian day will be served in the afternoon in charge of Mrs. H. P. Bezazian. At the luncheon hour W. M. Roberts will be the speaker. At 1:30 there will be folk songs and dancing. At 2:30 a business meeting to which members are earnestly requested to attend.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

Hearty greetings were graciously extended by Mrs. H. C. Furneaux president of the Hamilton Park Woman's Club, to the large number of ladies present on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Berteaux of the Red Cross auxiliary announced all-day sewing on Fridays beginning at ten o'clock. Surgical dressings are made on Monday evenings and Tuesday afternoons. Members of this auxiliary work at the reclamation bureau on Wednesdays. Mrs. Averetts reported $11,200 as the amount of subscriptions secured by the club in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive. Mrs. H. B. Smih announced a scrap book party.

Miss Harriet Vittum's talk on "Trench Warfare for Women" was a stirring and timely appeal for conservation, and a plea for increased activity in all forms of war work.

The program for next week includes a board meeting at ten o'clock; luncheon at twelve; study period, "Lyric Diction," at one; at 2:30 Mrs. Ira Couch Wood will speak on "Child's Conservation."

Send us your personal news items so we may have them before Wednesday evening. We are glad to publish them.

Sunday Evening Club

The large audience at the Sunday Evening Club was well entertained last Sunday evening by Dr. Chas. F. Aked in his lecture of David Lloyd George and gave us an insight into the character and characteristics of that great man of today. For next Sunday the committee will introduce another distinguished lecturer in Owen R. Lovejoy, the wonderful child labor student who will speak on "Safeguarding Childhood in Peace or War."

Mr. Lovejoy is a practical public speaker of exceptional gifts, and in addition to being a master of his subject he has a way of expressing himself that is full of delightful surprises at every turn and which challenges one's interested attention every minute he is speaking.

Julia C. Lathrop, chief of the Children's Bureau in the department of Labor at Washington says:

"He has a rich fund of knowledge and understanding, regarding the whole field of social problems which gives him a steady sense of proportion in presenting his own subject.

"He is always interesting, has a quick wit and a reassuring union of sympathy and common sense.

"His unaffected and charming manner, and his directness, without frills or peculiarity, make him one of the most agreeable speakers to whom I have ever listened."

The musical program at each meeting offered by Glenwood Preble and the choir, assisted by noted soloists is a most acceptable feature of the lectures and a rare treat is promised the audience Sunday night. Don't miss it.

Ladies and Their Gray Hair

"No gray-haired women need apply for work to Chicago employers. The gray hairs must be dyed. The employers won't stand for them. They want young, well dressed women, and they have no position to offer to women who are 40 and look it. Such is the conclusion of Mrs. Caroline Hill, who has been in charge of a vocational guidance desk maintained at the federal employment bureau of the Chicago Woman's club. Mrs. Hill made her report Wednesday."—Tribune.

Mrs. C. J. Uhl of 518 W. 69th St., telephone Wentworth 4455, is an expert hair dyer, and will be pleased to accommodate all ladies who desire her services.—Advertisement.

"Moral Byproducts of the War"

Sunday morning, at the Peoples Liberal church, Dr. White will preach the third sermon on "The Moral By-products of the War." These sermons are so full of food and thought, so searching that the thoughtful cannot afford to miss them and those who do not think deeply nor study the great problems of the war, need the help that this clear thinker can give. In the evening the pulpit will be occupied by Miss Carita Spencer, who is appointed by the French Government as National Chairman of Food for France. Miss Spencer has been called the silver tongued orator, and comes under the auspices of the Englewood Woman's Club, who wish to launch this propaganda in our midst, for no doubt the feeding of the people of France is our next problem. We must save this nation and help the illy fed children and old people to live and rebuild their devastated country. Miss Spencer speaks only to Chicago in the loop and at the People's Liberal church in Englewood. She uses a stereopticon. She will be brought to Englewood on promise of a packed house. Admission free. Come and bring your friends.

Repeated increases in our expense of publication, compels us to raise the price of our classified ads to 25 cents for the first two lines, and ten cents for each additional line of six words.

This will take effect in our issue of December 6th. Money, check or postage stamps must accompany the copy for ads, and we must receive them either at our agencies (published elsewhere) or at the office, 540 W. 63rd St., by 5 o'clock Wednesday evening.
